

Society Dines on New Italian Liner the Giulio Cesare

Three Hundred Guests See
Bounties of Foreign Ship
at Her Pier.

To introduce the newest of transatlantic liners to New York admirers of modern sumptuous steamships, there was a dinner last night on board the Giulio Cesare of the Navigazione Generale Italiana, which is at her pier at the foot of West Fifty-seventh street.

As an incident in society the dinner was one of the important of the evening. Those among the 300 guests, who have been frequent sea travelers, were outspoken in their admiration of the beautiful but substantial appointments of the 2,400-ton liner. The dinner was served at small tables in the main dining saloon and the gallery that surrounds it. But the ballroom, essential to a modern steamship, the lounge and library were open for the enjoyment of the guests.

The presence of Mr. T. F. Bernardi, the Italian Consul, Mrs. Bernardi, Count Giulio Boglietti, Italian Consul at Montreal, Countess Boglietti and Mr. Ubaldo Rochira, Italian Vice Consul, in New York, and Dr. Major G. Morisani, an Italian Commissioner of the United States, gave the entertainment an official aspect. The Giulio Cesare will sail Saturday to complete her second round trip to this port.

Parties for the dinner were arranged by Mrs. Richard T. Wilson, Countess Elena Thon di Revel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goulet, Countess Irene di Robilant, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Thomas, A. Munsey, whose party included Col. J. B. Maclean of Toronto, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burchell, Mr. Silvio Villa, Prince and Princess Francesco Rospigliosi, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Larkin and Mr. Stanley Dwight.

In the parties about the tables were Sir Thomas Lipton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles May Oelrichs, Mr. and Mrs. Goodhue Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gouverneur Wellman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thos Munda, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Knox Bell, Mr. Franklin A. Plummer, Mr. Arthur Brisbane, Mr. Louis Wiley, Mr. Robert Little McKee, Mr. James Byrne, Mrs. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte and Mrs. Miller Graves.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Wagstaff, Count de Perigny, Mr. and Mrs. Martin B. Saporta, Mr. and Mrs. Paul de Saint-Phar, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Gerli, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Thomas, Don and Donna Marino del duchi Torlonia, Mr. and Mrs. Orestes Ferrara, Mr. Whitney Warren, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Carol Dana Winthrop, Mr. and Mrs. Miss Anita Danneberg, Mr. Louis Gordon Hamersley, Miss Susan Gibney and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Pease.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Luigi Solari, Count Facchetti, Guglielmo, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Behar, Dr. and Mrs. Antonio Stella, Mr. and Mrs. William Gugenheim, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gardner, Capt. P. Schiavino, commodore of the N. G. I.; Capt. Ruppini, general director in the United States of the N. G. I.; Mrs. Ruppini, Mrs. Theodore Price, Mr. A. S. Gilbert, attorney for the N. G. I., and Mrs. Gilbert, Miss Alva Macy Beers, Mr. Philip Robinson and Miss Eleanor Plagg.

The Oxford team was composed of Edward Major, Kenneth B. Lindsay and M. C. Hollis. Columbia was represented by Hugh S. Williamson, Archie O. Dawson and Thomas F. Compston. After the debate a viva voce vote was taken on the United States joining the league, and the result was a vote of 100 to 100.

The Oxford team was composed of Edward Major, Kenneth B. Lindsay and M. C. Hollis. Columbia was represented by Hugh S. Williamson, Archie O. Dawson and Thomas F. Compston. After the debate a viva voce vote was taken on the United States joining the league, and the result was a vote of 100 to 100.

The Oxford team was composed of Edward Major, Kenneth B. Lindsay and M. C. Hollis. Columbia was represented by Hugh S. Williamson, Archie O. Dawson and Thomas F. Compston. After the debate a viva voce vote was taken on the United States joining the league, and the result was a vote of 100 to 100.

The Oxford team was composed of Edward Major, Kenneth B. Lindsay and M. C. Hollis. Columbia was represented by Hugh S. Williamson, Archie O. Dawson and Thomas F. Compston. After the debate a viva voce vote was taken on the United States joining the league, and the result was a vote of 100 to 100.

The Oxford team was composed of Edward Major, Kenneth B. Lindsay and M. C. Hollis. Columbia was represented by Hugh S. Williamson, Archie O. Dawson and Thomas F. Compston. After the debate a viva voce vote was taken on the United States joining the league, and the result was a vote of 100 to 100.

The Oxford team was composed of Edward Major, Kenneth B. Lindsay and M. C. Hollis. Columbia was represented by Hugh S. Williamson, Archie O. Dawson and Thomas F. Compston. After the debate a viva voce vote was taken on the United States joining the league, and the result was a vote of 100 to 100.

The Oxford team was composed of Edward Major, Kenneth B. Lindsay and M. C. Hollis. Columbia was represented by Hugh S. Williamson, Archie O. Dawson and Thomas F. Compston. After the debate a viva voce vote was taken on the United States joining the league, and the result was a vote of 100 to 100.

The Oxford team was composed of Edward Major, Kenneth B. Lindsay and M. C. Hollis. Columbia was represented by Hugh S. Williamson, Archie O. Dawson and Thomas F. Compston. After the debate a viva voce vote was taken on the United States joining the league, and the result was a vote of 100 to 100.

The Oxford team was composed of Edward Major, Kenneth B. Lindsay and M. C. Hollis. Columbia was represented by Hugh S. Williamson, Archie O. Dawson and Thomas F. Compston. After the debate a viva voce vote was taken on the United States joining the league, and the result was a vote of 100 to 100.

The Oxford team was composed of Edward Major, Kenneth B. Lindsay and M. C. Hollis. Columbia was represented by Hugh S. Williamson, Archie O. Dawson and Thomas F. Compston. After the debate a viva voce vote was taken on the United States joining the league, and the result was a vote of 100 to 100.

The Oxford team was composed of Edward Major, Kenneth B. Lindsay and M. C. Hollis. Columbia was represented by Hugh S. Williamson, Archie O. Dawson and Thomas F. Compston. After the debate a viva voce vote was taken on the United States joining the league, and the result was a vote of 100 to 100.

Married Yesterday

Mrs. William Harman

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE

NEW YORK.

Mr. Anson R. Flower of 479 Madison Ave. is at the Ambassador Hotel.

Mrs. John Innes Kane went from Bar Harbor, Me., next to New York to-morrow from Boston.

Mrs. Frederic Nelson has left the Plaza from Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus T. have returned to 7 East 11th after passing the summer at the Westchester-Biltmore Club.

Mrs. Henry S. Redmond is at the Westchester-Biltmore Club.

Mrs. Harry S. Black Southport yesterday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. May.

Dr. and Mrs. Fellows D. are in a series of farewell dinners to their departure for Italy.

Mr. Percy R. Pyne 2d is in his house in Roslyn, L. I., on his return to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Van der Brugg are passing the autumn home in Peapack, N. J.

Mrs. George A. Crocker, been visiting her parents, Arthur H. Menden, at their home in Bay, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Livingston are being congratulated on the birth of their sixth child, a son, at their home in Roslyn, L. I.

Guests of Mr. Foxhall P. 1 luncheon in Pierre's yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. James Lowell Putnam and Mr. John E. Cowdin and a family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed and Mrs. George Reed are in New York from their country place in Locust Valley and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Gilbert, Jr., in from their country home in Gilbertville, N. Y., are at the St. Regis.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. J. K. Robinson entertained twelve guests at dinner last evening for Lieut. and Mrs. W. J. C. Agnew.

Mrs. Chandler Hale and her daughter, Miss Mary C. Hale, are in New York for a few days en route to Washington from Bar Harbor.

The Ambassador of Belgium and Baroness de Carter, who have been abroad all summer, will sail for this country on October 19 on the Lapland from Antwerp.

Prince de Bearn, former Counselor of the French Embassy in Washington, who arrived in this country on Sunday, is on his way to Tokyo, Japan, having been appointed Counselor of the French Embassy.

Gen. Pershing will remain in New York until after Saturday to see the world series baseball and the polo at Meadow Brook. Gen. Pershing's aid, Major John G. Quisenberry, will join him in New York for the polo.

At Washington Hotels.

New York arrivals at Washington hotels include:

The Shoreham-Messers, Douglass M. Messer, Edward P. Flinn, Alexander G. Messer and R. T. Clifford.

The Wardman Park-Messrs. P. H. McNulty and Mr. K. M. Simpson.

The Willard-Messrs. J. R. Kilpatrick, Louis Davis, Ralph A. Day, J. G. Forrest, John A. Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. Allen R. Brown, Mr. John A. Foster, Mr. W. B. Blower, Mrs. G. T. Lowry, Mr. William R. Morris and Mr. Gilbert P. Brush.

ROOSEVELT FUND BENEFIT.

Country Club Concert Adds Bright Place Restoration.

ROYAL VISITORS JOIN THROG AT INTERNATIONAL POLO MATCH

Lord and Lady Mountbatten Interested Spectators at Meadow Brook Tournament.

Lord and Lady Mountbatten were interested spectators yesterday at the international polo tournament at the Meadow Brook Club at Westbury, L. I.

The distinguished visitors, who arrived on board the Majestic on Tuesday, left the Ritz-Carlton by automobile early in the afternoon with Mr. Paul Hammon and on arriving at the field were met by Mr. George Mull Woolsey.

Lord Mountbatten said to a reporter for this New York Herald that he and his wife were tremendously interested in the game and they were glad the American team won. She wore a coat of black broadcloth with a wide cluster of mauve orchids at the corsage. Her hat of black velvet with a wide brim that almost completely hid her face was ornamented with gilt curls.

Tournament's Largest Crowd.

The gathering was the largest thus far of the series, all the boxes and seats on the grand stand being occupied. It was particularly gay appearing crowd, many bright colored costumes being worn, with vivid scarlet and reds prevailing shades. With Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zabriskie Gray in their box on the club stand were Mrs. William F. Sheehan, Mrs. Julian Ripley, Miss Janet Fish, Mrs. Austin Gray and his daughter, Miss Marion Gray. With Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Webb were Miss Bell Gurnee and Mr. Frederic Potts Moore.

Mrs. Edward Shearson and Mrs. S. A. Warner Baltazzi were with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Peil, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Snow were with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry I. Nicholas. Among others in the club boxes and seats were Mr. and Mrs. W. Goadby Low, the Misses Low, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wickham Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fairfield O'Brien, Jr., James A. Burden, Harry Payne Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Edmon Lewis, R. H. Williams, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Beekman Winthrop, Lawrence S. Butler, Mrs. Stanford White, Mrs. Devereux Emmet, Devereux Emmet, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bryce Wing, Mr. and Mrs. Adams Batcheller, Mrs. George Rose, Mr. and Mrs. David Dows, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Webster, Henry S. Hooker, Seymour Johnson, F. Burrill Hoffman and Sewall Cary. Among those who came in for tea from other parts of the grand stand were Princess Rospigliosi and her daughter, Donna Elena Rospigliosi, Mrs. Herbert Shuman and Mrs. Van Wageningen, Mrs. Walter J. Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Boldt, Mr. and Mrs. Alan D. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunter Brown, P. A. S. Franklin, Mrs. James Brown, Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Davison, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dadman, Mrs. John C. Waterbury, Mrs. Guy Fairfax Cary, Mrs. Clarence Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Anson Wood Burchard, with whom were Countess Constantini and Mrs. Henry W. Cohn and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Noel Rawlin.

Others at the Tournament.

With Dr. and Mrs. Preston P. Satterwhite were Prince and Princess Francis of Russia, Mrs. Herbert Shuman and Mrs. Morton L. Schwarz. Others in the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. A. Delano Weekes, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Brown, Mrs. Jean L. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Monson Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Beadleston, Mr. and Mrs. William Staplepole and Mr. Adrian Leitch 2d, who were with Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. M. Taylor Pyne, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Minot.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Bradish G. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Aldrich, who were with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Van Wageningen, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Boldt, Mr. and Mrs. Alan D. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunter Brown, P. A. S. Franklin, Mrs. James Brown, Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Davison, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dadman, Mrs. John C. Waterbury, Mrs. Guy Fairfax Cary, Mrs. Clarence Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Anson Wood Burchard, with whom were Countess Constantini and Mrs. Henry W. Cohn and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Noel Rawlin.

Among others in the grand stand were Sir William and Lady Berry, just here from England, who came with Mr. Otto H. Kahn, Mrs. Whitlow Reid was with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hastings, and with Mr. and Mrs. E. Reeves Merritt were Mrs. J. Howell Carroll and Mrs. Frank Loring of Washington, D. C. Mr. and

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

RUSH TAGGART WILL FILED.

The will of Rush Taggart, corporation lawyer and for many years general solicitor of the Western Union Telegraph Company, was filed for probate yesterday by his son, Rush, Jr., 315 West Seventy-fifth street. He and his sisters, Mary W. and Alice, are the beneficiaries. The will was dated July 7, 1899, and made his wife the sole beneficiary. Following her death three years ago, Mr. Taggart executed a codicil for the benefit of his children.

MRS. CATT GOING ABROAD.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

ROYAL VISITORS JOIN THROG AT INTERNATIONAL POLO MATCH

Lord and Lady Mountbatten Interested Spectators at Meadow Brook Tournament.

Lord and Lady Mountbatten were interested spectators yesterday at the international polo tournament at the Meadow Brook Club at Westbury, L. I.

The distinguished visitors, who arrived on board the Majestic on Tuesday, left the Ritz-Carlton by automobile early in the afternoon with Mr. Paul Hammon and on arriving at the field were met by Mr. George Mull Woolsey.

Lord Mountbatten said to a reporter for this New York Herald that he and his wife were tremendously interested in the game and they were glad the American team won. She wore a coat of black broadcloth with a wide cluster of mauve orchids at the corsage. Her hat of black velvet with a wide brim that almost completely hid her face was ornamented with gilt curls.

Tournament's Largest Crowd.

The gathering was the largest thus far of the series, all the boxes and seats on the grand stand being occupied. It was particularly gay appearing crowd, many bright colored costumes being worn, with vivid scarlet and reds prevailing shades. With Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zabriskie Gray in their box on the club stand were Mrs. William F. Sheehan, Mrs. Julian Ripley, Miss Janet Fish, Mrs. Austin Gray and his daughter, Miss Marion Gray. With Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Webb were Miss Bell Gurnee and Mr. Frederic Potts Moore.

Mrs. Edward Shearson and Mrs. S. A. Warner Baltazzi were with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Peil, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Snow were with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry I. Nicholas. Among others in the club boxes and seats were Mr. and Mrs. W. Goadby Low, the Misses Low, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wickham Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fairfield O'Brien, Jr., James A. Burden, Harry Payne Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Edmon Lewis, R. H. Williams, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Beekman Winthrop, Lawrence S. Butler, Mrs. Stanford White, Mrs. Devereux Emmet, Devereux Emmet, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bryce Wing, Mr. and Mrs. Adams Batcheller, Mrs. George Rose, Mr. and Mrs. David Dows, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Webster, Henry S. Hooker, Seymour Johnson, F. Burrill Hoffman and Sewall Cary. Among those who came in for tea from other parts of the grand stand were Princess Rospigliosi and her daughter, Donna Elena Rospigliosi, Mrs. Herbert Shuman and Mrs. Van Wageningen, Mrs. Walter J. Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Boldt, Mr. and Mrs. Alan D. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunter Brown, P. A. S. Franklin, Mrs. James Brown, Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Davison, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dadman, Mrs. John C. Waterbury, Mrs. Guy Fairfax Cary, Mrs. Clarence Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Anson Wood Burchard, with whom were Countess Constantini and Mrs. Henry W. Cohn and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Noel Rawlin.

Others at the Tournament.

With Dr. and Mrs. Preston P. Satterwhite were Prince and Princess Francis of Russia, Mrs. Herbert Shuman and Mrs. Morton L. Schwarz. Others in the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. A. Delano Weekes, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Brown, Mrs. Jean L. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Monson Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Beadleston, Mr. and Mrs. William Staplepole and Mr. Adrian Leitch 2d, who were with Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. M. Taylor Pyne, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Minot.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Bradish G. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Aldrich, who were with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Van Wageningen, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Boldt, Mr. and Mrs. Alan D. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunter Brown, P. A. S. Franklin, Mrs. James Brown, Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Davison, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dadman, Mrs. John C. Waterbury, Mrs. Guy Fairfax Cary, Mrs. Clarence Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Anson Wood Burchard, with whom were Countess Constantini and Mrs. Henry W. Cohn and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Noel Rawlin.

Among others in the grand stand were Sir William and Lady Berry, just here from England, who came with Mr. Otto H. Kahn, Mrs. Whitlow Reid was with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hastings, and with Mr. and Mrs. E. Reeves Merritt were Mrs. J. Howell Carroll and Mrs. Frank Loring of Washington, D. C. Mr. and

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Mrs. Frederic Van Lennep will sail Saturday for the Giulio Cesare in the interest of the Pan-American Women's Union. After presiding over several meetings in Rome, Paris and London Mrs. Catt expects to go to Rio de Janeiro and all the important emperors on the east and west coasts of South America on the same mission.

ROYAL VISITORS JOIN THROG AT INTERNATIONAL POLO MATCH

Lord and Lady Mountbatten Interested Spectators at Meadow Brook Tournament.

Lord and Lady Mountbatten were interested spectators yesterday at the international polo tournament at the Meadow Brook Club at Westbury, L. I.

The distinguished visitors, who arrived on board the Majestic on Tuesday, left the Ritz-Carlton by automobile early in the afternoon with Mr. Paul Hammon and on arriving at the field were met by Mr. George Mull Woolsey.

Lord Mountbatten said to a reporter for this New York Herald that he and his wife were tremendously interested in the game and they were glad the American team won. She wore a coat of black broadcloth with a wide cluster of mauve orchids at the corsage. Her hat of black velvet with a wide brim that almost completely hid her face was ornamented with gilt curls.

Tournament's Largest Crowd.

The gathering was the largest thus far of the series, all the boxes and seats on the grand stand being occupied. It was particularly gay appearing crowd, many bright colored costumes being worn, with vivid scarlet and reds prevailing shades. With Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zabriskie Gray in their box on the club stand were Mrs. William F. Sheehan, Mrs. Julian Ripley, Miss Janet Fish, Mrs. Austin Gray and his daughter, Miss Marion Gray. With Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Webb were Miss Bell Gurnee and Mr. Frederic Potts Moore.

Mrs. Edward Shearson and Mrs. S. A. Warner Baltazzi were with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Peil, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Snow were with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry I. Nicholas. Among others in the club boxes and seats were Mr. and Mrs. W. Goadby Low, the Misses Low, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wickham Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fairfield O'Brien, Jr., James A. Burden, Harry Payne Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Edmon Lewis, R. H. Williams, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Beekman Winthrop, Lawrence S. Butler, Mrs. Stanford White, Mrs. Devereux Emmet, Devereux Emmet, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bryce Wing, Mr. and Mrs. Adams Batcheller, Mrs. George Rose, Mr. and Mrs. David Dows, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Webster, Henry S. Hooker, Seymour Johnson, F. Burrill Hoffman and Sewall Cary. Among those who came in for tea from other parts of the grand stand were Princess Rospigliosi and her daughter, Donna Elena Rospigliosi, Mrs. Herbert Shuman and Mrs. Van Wageningen, Mrs. Walter J.